Amendment History

- These are the rules of the Association as adopted at the special general meeting held 27 February 2013 to align with the new model rules
- Amended at a further Special General Meeting held 9 April 2013.
- The Preamble and Membership were amended at the Annual General Meeting 3 March 2016.

Preamble

The name of the organisation shall be The Children's Book Council of Australia ACT Branch Incorporated.

The Children's Book Council of Australia (CBCA) ACT Branch is a volunteer run, not for profit, organisation that was established in 1945 and is comprised individual members who are passionate about children's and young adult literature.

The CBCA ACT continues to celebrate Australian children's literature and its creators, and seeks to engage the community with literature for young Australians

Mission

To achieve positive social impact by engaging the community with literature for young Australians

Tagline: Since 1945 – Your Connection to Story

Vision

To be the premier voice on literature for young Australians by 2020 by informing and promoting critical debate, fostering creative responses and engaging with and encouraging Australian authors and illustrators to produce quality literature
Through these efforts, we are nurturing a literate, educated and creative society

Descriptor / Aims

The CBCA is the leading voice on literature for young Australian's and aims to:

1. engage the community with literature
2. promote literature and literacy nationally
3. engage and encourage authors and illustrators to produce quality literature and present annual awards

Values

1. Learning: we recognize and repeat success and pursue growth and learning
2. Integrity: doing what is right underpins all decisions
3. Passion: we believe in what we do and have confidence in our capability and intentions
4. Respect: we value everyone's voice and story
5. Collaboration: we are an open book and are eager to connect and work with stakeholders to share what we know

Objectives

1. To consistently be the premier voice on literature for young Australians
2. To promote quality literature to young Australians
3. To support Australian writers and illustrators of children's books

4. To promote the role of library and literature professionals in bringing children and books together
5. To celebrate outstanding contributions to Australian children's literature (BOYA)
6. To promote greater equity of access to reading through community projects

These aims and objectives are a reflection of the National body – The Children's Book Council of Australia Ltd as approved in their strategic plan October 2015.

Part 1.1 Preliminary

1 Definitions for model rules

In these rules:

Note A definition applies except so far as the contrary intention appears (see Legislation Act, s 155).

Association is the Children's Book Council of Australia (ACT Branch) Inc.

financial year means the year ending on 31st December.

member means a member, however described, of the Association.

ordinary committee member means a member of the committee who is not an office-bearer of the Association as mentioned in section 12 (1) (a).

secretary means the person holding office under these rules as secretary of the Association or, if no such person holds that office, the public officer of the Association.

the Act means the Associations Incorporation Act 1991.

the regulation means the Associations Incorporation Regulation 1991.

the archivist means the person appointed by the committee to archive all documentation of the association.

the public officer means the person appointed by the committee to act as the public officer of the association to lodge documents as required under the Act. The public officer also acts as the returning officer for all elections held.

1A Application of Legislation Act 2001

The Legislation Act 2001 applies to these Rules in the same way as it would if they were an instrument made under the Act.

- (3) A requisition of members for a general meeting—

- (a) must state the purpose or purposes of the meeting; and
 - (b) must be signed by the members making the requisition; and
 - (c) must be lodged with the secretary; and
 - (d) may consist of several documents in a similar form, each signed by one or more of the members making the requisition.
- (4) If the Committee fails to call a general meeting within one month after the date when a requisition of members for the meeting is lodged with the Secretary, any one or more of the members who made the requisition may call a general meeting to be held not later than three months after that date.
- (5) A general meeting called by a member or members mentioned in clause 23(4) must be called as nearly as is practicable in the same way as the Committee and any member who thereby incurs expense call general meetings is entitled to be reimbursed by the Association for any reasonable expense so incurred.

24 Notice

- (1) Except if the nature of the business proposed to be dealt with at a general meeting requires a special resolution of the Association, the Secretary must, at least 14 days before the date fixed for the holding of the general meeting, sent to each member at the member's address appearing in the register of members, a notice specifying the place, date and time of the meeting and the nature of the business proposed to be transacted at the meeting.
- (2) If the nature of the business proposed to be dealt with at a general meeting requires a special resolution of the Association, the secretary must, at least 21 days before the date fixed for the holding of the general meeting, send notice to each member in the way provided in clause 24(1) specifying, in addition to the matter required under that clause, the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution.
- (3) No business other than that specified in the notice calling a general meeting may be transacted at the meeting except, for an annual general meeting, business that may be transacted under clause 22(2).
- (4) A member desiring to bring any business before a general meeting may give written notice of that business to the secretary who must include that business in the next notice calling a general meeting given after receipt of the notice from the member.

25 General meetings—procedure and quorum

- (1) No item of business may be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum of members entitled under these rules to vote is present during the time the meeting is considering that item.
- (2) Five members present in person (who are entitled under these rules to vote at a general meeting) constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of a general meeting.
- (3) If within 30 minutes after the appointed time for the start of a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting if called on the requisition of members is dissolved and in any other case stands adjourned to the same day in the following week at the same time and (unless another place is specified at the time of adjournment by the person presiding at the meeting or communicated by written notice to members given before the day to which the meeting is adjourned) at the same place.

- (4) If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the start of the meeting, the members present (being not less than five) constitute a quorum.

26 Presiding member

- (1) The President, or in the absence of the President, the Vice-President, presides at each general meeting of the Association.
- (2) If the President and the Vice-Presidents are absent from a general meeting, the members present must elect one of their number to preside at the meeting.

27 Adjournment

- (1) The person presiding at a general meeting at which a quorum is present may, with the consent of the majority of members present at the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and place to place, but no business may be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting at which the adjournment took place.
- (2) If a general meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more, the secretary must give written or oral notice of the adjourned meeting to each member of the Association stating the place, date and time of the meeting and the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting.
- (3) Except as provided in clauses 27(1) and 27(2), notice of an adjournment of a general meeting or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting is not required to be given.

28 Making of decisions

- (1) A question arising at a general meeting of the Association is to be decided on a show of hands and, unless before or on the declaration of the show of hands a poll is demanded, a declaration by the person presiding that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried or carried unanimously or carried by a particular majority of 75% or lost, or an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Association, is evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against that resolution.
- (2) At a general meeting of the Association, a poll may be demanded by the person presiding or by not less than five members present in person or by proxy at the meeting.
- (3) If the poll is demanded at a general meeting, the poll must be taken—
 - (a) immediately if the poll relates to the election of the person to preside at the meeting or to the question of an adjournment; or

- (b) in any other case—in the way and at the time before the close of the meeting that the person presiding directs, and the resolution of the poll on the matter is taken to be the resolution of the meeting on that matter.

29 Voting

- (1) Subject to clause 29(3), on any question arising at a general meeting of the Association a member has one vote only.
- (2) All votes may be given personally or by proxy.
- (3) If the votes on a question at a general meeting are equal, the person presiding is entitled to exercise a second or casting vote.
- (4) A member or proxy is not entitled to vote at any general meeting of the Association unless all money due and payable by the member or proxy to the Association has been paid, other than the amount of the annual subscription payable for the then current year.

30 Appointment of proxies

- (1) Each member is entitled to appoint another member as proxy by notice given to the Secretary no later than 24 hours before the time of the meeting for which the proxy is appointed.
- (2) The notice appointing the proxy must be in the form set out in appendix 2.

Part 1.5 Miscellaneous

31 Funds—source

- (1) The funds of the Association must be derived from entrance fees and annual subscriptions of members, donations and, subject to any resolution passed by the Association in general meeting and subject to section 114 of the Act, any other sources that the Committee decides.
- (2) All money received by the Association must be deposited as soon as practicable and without deduction to the credit of the Association's bank account.
- (3) The Association must, as soon as practicable after receiving any money, issue an appropriate receipt.

32 Funds—management

- (1) Subject to any resolution passed by the Association in general meeting, the funds of the Association must be used for the objects of the Association in the way that the Committee decides.
- (2) All cheques, drafts, bills of exchange, promissory notes and other negotiable instruments must be signed or authorized for electronic transfer by any two office bearers of the Committee or an employee of the Association authorised by the Committee from time to time, being members of the Committee or employees authorised to do so by the Committee as defined at each Annual General Meeting.
- (3) Each payment made electronically must be authorized by email before it is made by at least two members of the Committee. These authorisations must be kept with the payment receipts.

33 Alteration of objects and rules

Neither the objects of the Association mentioned in section 29 of the Act, nor these rules may be altered except in accordance with the Act.

34 Custody of books

Subject to the Act, the regulation and these rules, the Secretary must keep in his or her custody or under his or her control all records, books, and other documents relating to the Association. This included the common seal of the Association.

35 Inspection of books

The records, books and other documents of the Association must be open to inspection at a place in the ACT, free of charge, by a member of the Association at any reasonable hour.

36 Service of notice
